Corporate Membership (All prices shown include GST)

Corporate Membership is available to professional design practices and other organisations associated with the graphic design industry. This category provides organisations with group membership to AGDA at a discounted rate for three or more memberships.

Organisations who take up a Corporate Membership must nominate the individual recipients of the Corporate Membership. Membership cards for each nominated individual will be supplied to the organisation.

These nominations are not transferable during the membership year (conditions apply).

Should a nominated individual leave the organisation and wish to retain their AGDA membership, they will be required to pay the appropriate membership fee. They are not required to pay the joining fee.

Corporate Membership fees are as shown. Organisations wishing to enrol more than ten members may do so at the maximum discount rate of $104 per membership.
